The work embodies a resume of the commercial, industrial and social interests and activities of the communities. It is a functional directory in all its parts and includes all the essential features which have proven so satisfactory to our patrons in previous issues. The best of these have been retained and amplified and improvements have been added in order to increase the value and usefulness of the Directory to meet the requirements of patrons.

CHINESE FESTIVALS

No people in the world enjoy celebrations more than the Chinese. During the year they have many-all have a special significance and all are celebrated in the grand manner. The Chinese can, on certain occasions, be a very noisy people, shouting, cheering, rushing hither, shooting off firecrackers, sky-rockets and Roman candles; but with it all they never become excited or rude to the point where they forget respect and consideration for those about them.

The Chinese have many festivals. Most are connected with the seasons, but some are occasions for paying respect and reverence to ancestors.

NEW YEAR

New Year is the greatest of all the Chinese celebrations. It is the time for great rejoicing, with a world filled with happiness and promise. Debts are paid before the New Year, leaving everyone free for mirth and happiness in a carefree manner.

Houses are newly painted, draped and decorated with bunting to hail the occasion. Walls are washed, floors scoured and furniture varnished. As a part of the celebration, children get new clothes; receive presents and books. On New Year everybody dons his Sunday best. Many of the fashionable young ladies take pride in showing off the latest gowns with a native Chinese effect.

The most important ritual takes place on New Year's Eve when sweets fruits, flowers and choicest foods are blessed and offered before the portraits of ancestors. When the ceremonial hour arrives the head of the family lights red candles and burns incense. Tea is offered to the spirits of deceased loved ones, and members of the family according to seniority, bow before the portraits of the departed.

Dinner on New Year's Eve is the most sumptous of the year. Foods take on fanciful and exotic names. An egg becomes a 'silver ingot', taros become 'fortunes,' and rice cakes signify 'progress and advance.

The entire family congregates gaily around the table, drinking toasts and telling jokes. Gifts are exchanged. Parents wrap silver dollars or bank notes in red paper and place them under the children's pillows.

Chinese greet each other on New Year's Day with the expression 'Gung hay fat Choy.' equivalent to 'Happy New Year along with prosperity.' So tourist visiting Chinatown on Yew Year also may greet their Chinese cousins with a hearty 'Gung hay fat choy.' Very often state and city officials visit Chinatown to congratulate local leaders and wish happiness and prosperity to all the people.

During the New Year celebration, Chinatown is a roar of firecrackers the sky lighted by thousands of rockets and Roman candles. The dragon and lion dances, the big parade, the colorful Chinese beauty contest and the fashion show make the event the best time to visit Chinatown. Determined by the rotation of the moon, the Chinese New Year comes in late January or early February. Visit Chinatown on its day of days, Chinese New Year. In anticipation of your visit, Chinatown Handy Guide greets you with a hearty 'Gung hay fat choy.'

CHING MING

Another highly celebrated festival is called 'Ching Ming,' or the Festival of Tombs. This event comes toward the end of the second month in the Chinese calendar, the time when the Chinese greet the spring. The festival is universally observed, and while it is a time for pleasure and picnicking, it is also the time when reverence and honor is paid to the departed spirits. On that day graves are put in order. Each family presents an offering before the tablets adorning the graves of its dearly departed. Flowers and wreaths are laid on them as a mark of remembrance. These practices, observed since 700 B.C., can be compared with those of Memorial Day. Ching Ming is celebrated around early April.

DRAGON BOAT FESTIVAL

This festival, held on the fifth day of the fifth month, Chinese calendar, occurs in late June or early July.

Every action of the day is directed toward warding off evil symptoms and spirits. Everyone is aware of the five poisonus creatures; toads, lizards, scorpions, centipedes and serpents.

Special foods served on this day are dumplings of glutinous rice boiled in bamboo leaves in various shapes; garlic, spinach, salted egg and lima beans.

This season of the year is considered nautical by the Chinese who take part in the delights of boating. The dragon boat is king of the festival. It is narrow, just wide enough for two men sitting abreast. It is moved by paddles to the accompaniment of drums and gongs creating a great din.

The most popular account of the origin of this festival is that it commemorates the untimely death of a great poet and minister of state, Chu Yuan, who was falsely accused by a corrupt prince. In remorse, he drowned himself as an example of his belief in right and honest living. The dragon boat regattas are in memory of the search for his body

MOON FESTIVAL

This important festival, falling on the fifteenth day of the eighth month of the Chinese calendar, is celebrated and revered by every Chinese community. Falling in September, it could be called the Harvest Home, or gathering of the fruits, vegetables and plants for winter storage.

Friends gather around a table of the harvest consisting of moon cake candy, water chestnuts and wine. For the children it is a day of happiness and promise, for the moon goddess is supposed to come down from heaven to give all mortals, especially the children, their desires.

Old romantic fables are related, woven around the fabulously charm Moon Lady, Chang Ngo, wife of an alchemist, who labored for years to make three pills which could preserve life and transform humans into divinities. During this Mid-Autumn Festival she found and swallowed the pills.

Fleeing the house to escape her husband's wrath, she found herself being transported into the clouds. She landed in moonland before the Palace of Crystal where she was crowned Lady of the Moon.

DOUBLE TEN

Double Ten is Chinese National Day. It is the patriotic occasion similar to the American Fourth of July (Independence Day). It gets its name because it falls on the tenth day of the tenth month. It is the anniversary celebration of the founding of the Chinese Republic.

The Republic was created in 1911 by the beloved patriot, Dr. Sun Yat-sen and his fellow revolutionaries who, after a long struggle, overthrew the ruling Manchu Dynasty. Now, in spite of the fact that China is under Communist rule, Chinese in all parts of the world dedicate the occasion to the honor and respect of Dr. Sun Yatsen, who was also the first president of the Chinese Republic - the Chinese George Washington.

Double Ten is celebrated in purely patriotic manner. There are spor ting events, special theatrical productions, festive dances, parades and the turning on of festive lights. It is an occasion for celebration similar to New Year's.

CHINESE CUSTOMS

A birth of any kind is a joyful event in China, and in fact, the expression 'there is a you' or 'your lady has a joy' is the ordinary way of saying that an interesting family event is expected. In parts of China several jars of wine are put aside when a girl is born to be served to the guests at her wedding.

Children are a year old at birth. Each New Year they become a year older. They always walk behind their elders. Duty to parents is a lifetime virtue. Children are taught that rice is the staff of life: it must never be wasted. Each grain left in the bowl may be a pock mark on one's future bride.

The old custom of binding a girl's feet as a child to keep them small and dainty has disappeared and the custom of men wearing pigtails has long become a thing of the past.

Surnames precede given names. Thus, in Li Hung-chang, late premier of Chang Dynasty, Li is the surname.

A Chinese written character has the same meaning in all parts of China although its pronunciation may vary from place to place. The writing instrument is a soft, pliable brush held vertically. It was invented about the Third Century. Paper was invented in China much earlier.

Most of Chinese books are bound on the right hand side. They are read from the back forward and proceeding from top down and right to left. Some footnotes appear at the top of the page.

South is the central point of the compass, which, incidentally, was invented in China.

The symbol 'Fu' (blessing or happiness) is commonly seen written on red paper above doorways. However, if a death has occurred in the household during the previous year, it is written on white or blue paper.

Hsi is the word for joy in Chinese. This character doubled is called 'double joy'. You will always see a big red 'double joy' character at a Chinese wedding ceremony or displayed in a bride's bedroom. The 'double joy' character symbolizes matrimonial felicity: two joys make a double joy and it takes two to make a successful and happy marriage. A husband and wife are united like the two symbols in 'double joy', never to be separated.

White, not black, is the color of mourning. Red color is a good omen.

Professional story tellers are employed to entertain guests in fashionable tea houses in China.

Soup and fish are served at the end, not the beginning of a banquet.

Wines are served warm in winter.

At dinner the host sits opposite the guest of honor, usually with his back to the door. The left side of the table is considered 'higher' than the right.

Finger games may be played for cups of wine at the beginning of a meal. Two players hold out any number of fingers simultaneously and shout out their guesses of the total number held out. The loser, not the winner, drinks the wine.

To drop chopsticks is an omen of bad luck. Finding an unmatched pair at one's plate foretells the missing of a train or boat. Upsetting a bowl of rice is a sign of ill fortune. Deliberately dumping a bowl of rice on the ground is a gross insult to a host.

He looked out of the window and called to his wife, "There goes that woman Bill Jones is in love with."

She dropped the cup she was drying in the kitchen, hurtled through the door, knocked over a lamp and craned her neck to look. "Where?" she panted.

"There," he pointed, "that woman at the corner in the tweed coat."

"You idiot," she said, "that's his wife."

"Well, of course, it is," he replied.

A mountain dweller was making his first trip to the big city. He was particularly intrigued by the elevators. First time he saw one he watched an old lady step into it and disappear behind the sliding doors. Seconds later it returned and out came a beautiful redhead. He wished now that he had brought his wife along.

Discovered by John Cabot in 1497, Newfoundland's 43,000 square miles of unspoiled country have since become a scenic and sporting paradise for thousands of tourists from home and abroad. And because the Dominion's newest member is closer to Europe than any other land on the North American continent, it draws many a vacationist from across the sea.

Newfoundland has had a long and interesting history. Until 1855, it was a separate and distinct unit of the British Empire. From 1855 to 1933, the territory maintained its own independent parliament. Then, through financial difficulties, the staunch little Island voluntarily surrendered its dominion status and became subject to government by commission.

On July 22nd, 1948, the people of Newfoundland voted to join the Dominion of Canada, and Britain's oldest colony became the tenth Province of the Dominion.

Since less than 2,000 air miles separate it from the shores of Ireland, Newfoundland has long been a proving ground for world communications developments. The first trans-Atlantic cable stretched from Ireland to Newfoundland, and the first wireless message to span the ocean was received in St. John's by Marconi in 1901. The initial non-stop flight between North America and Europe was made from St. John's in 1919. Today, Gander Airport is on the crossroads for North Atlantic air travel.

Newfoundland is famous for its cod, herring, salmon, seal and whale fisheries, and is today the world's largest exporter of salted Codfish. Second in importance is the newsprint industry -- the mills at Grand Falls and Corner Brook have a daily output of better than 1,000 tons -- and the Island is also rich in iron ore and other minerals.

The Island's rugged and beautiful terrain makes it a haven for sportsmen. A wide network of lakes, rivers, ponds, and streams spreads from coast to coast, and here the angler can enjoy the finest in trout and salmon fishing. For the hunter, caribou and moose are found in large numbers, while ptarmigan (grouse), snipe, wild duck and geese provide excellent sport for the small-game enthusiast.

ST. JOHNS, Capital of Newfoundland, with a population of 56,000. and oldest city in North America, protected by one of the world's most perfect land-locked harbours. A grand view of the city and harbour spreads out from Cabot Tower on Signal Hill, site of Marconi's first successful trans-Atlantic wireless test in 1901. Interesting buildings are the two cathedrals, colleges, court house and post office. The museum contains exhibits relating to Newfoundland's history and first inhabitants -- the Beothics, a tribe of Indians now extinct.

CORNER BROOK, the largest west coast town, nestling back of beautiful Bay of Islands. A motor road follows the scenic Humber River northeast to Deer Lake and thence to Lomond in Bonne Bay.

PLACENTIA. Rusty cannon and crumbling walls, remaining from the the old forts, can be seen in this early French capital of Newfoundland. Near by is Argentia, the U.S. Naval Base built in World War 11. The Atlantic Charter was signed in Placentia Bay.
